Mr Duckett

It's been great fun in your homeroom.

I only wish I'd had as a teacher before this. Thank you for your guidance and help.

Mr. Duckett,
It has been fun this year
getting to know you.
Even if we are cousins, we still didn't know each other. Best of luck
to you.

Good Luck from a student to a real good teacher
 Bob Keschke

This is for my favorite teacher who I really enjoyed working for and think highly of. I think I will be able to look back years from now and say that this was my favorite and happiest high school year of all.
 Stephen Verbos

Mr. Duckett, the nicest one of the nicest 50 one of a person I thought I was a person. Let's be blessed with a great teacher who made it interesting. It was our very first year. Always your friend
 Luck

Mr. Duckett,
 I have enjoyed being in your homeroom very much. I am very proud to call you my friend and only wish I could have had you as an instructor before my senior year.

Sincerely, your friend,
 David Johnson

Duckett, I really enjoyed being in your homeroom. I have enjoyed you in your homeroom. I hope you make it next year too. See you around!
 Ray Flowers
 SR: 65

Will we make it again this year, didn't we? I've enjoyed traveling with you very much and I'm glad you got to go with me. That I hadn't been for you & probably wouldn't have made it anyway. You're a real great guy with a smile personally. Best! Luck in the future to the best teacher I know, your friend and student

Mrs Duckett
 I have truly enjoyed the time that I have spent in your home room & think very much of you and especially your school room habits. I hope we will always be the best of friends.
 Sincerely yours

MOODS

Enid High—a sea of never ceasing, rising, falling moods—

The enthusiasm and anticipation of the first ballgame, the first Plainsmen victory, a 100% test, the dances, the senior rings, the plays, and the clubs, the tournaments and contests, Homecoming, the applause of a job well-done, the friends who have been away, Sadie Hawkins Week, Valentines, the Junior-Senior Prom and Reception, graduation

The frustration of the first test not studied for, a victory for the other team, a party one has to miss, the ringing of the bell before the work is finished

The drive to win, to work, to make good, to be better than last year, to please, to learn, to achieve

The gaiety of the first day, greeting old friends and making new ones, pep assemblies, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, the 3:35 bell, confidential chats with favorite teachers, the weekends.

Corners and windows of each floor, the sacred senior stairs, places where the couples stand.....

Serenity of a teen-ager in thought or study, sincerity to pass, the library where they all work on term papers, of the May Fete, of graduation

Moods—yes, many moods—but together this is E.H.S.

Enthusiastic Anticipation

Frustration

Citizens Give Direction To Education Program

ENID BOARD of Education, L to R: Mr. Wes Mounts, Mr. Allie Paine, Dr. Milburn Carey, vice-president; Mr. John

Thorpe, president; Mrs. W. J. Buvinger, Mr. Cleo Fisher, and Mr. Leonard Edwards, members.

ENJOYING A BIT of humor before the annual Distributive Education and Diversified Occupations Employer-Employee Banquet, members of the Enid Board of Education and their wives spend a relaxing and informative evening as guests of E.H.S.

Mr. Autry Accepts Leadership Role

Many new activities were carried on in the Enid School System, with Mr. O. T. Autry, superintendent, effectively co-ordinating the program. Many of these educational approaches had been in actual growth over a period of years. One was the new math program extended into the elementary grades. The foreign language department added new facilities, and the biology labs installed new equipment.

For the first time this year the Enid School system took over the elementary class rooms at the Enid State School; and was completely responsible for the operation, as well as the curriculum.

Mr. Autry made two trips of importance after he took the office of superintendent. January 27 to January 29, he attended a meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, with twenty-five superintendents from the Southwest. This convention, held at the General Electric plant in Nela Park, sparked a three-day discussion on school lighting. Mr. Autry also attended a National Association of School Administrators conference in Atlantic City, New Jersey, where discussion centered around new furnishings and equipment which would be helpful to schools.

Mr. Autry had the responsibility for seventeen elementary schools, three junior highs, and Enid High School, all of which gave him deep concern for their total enrichment program.

Although he enjoyed working with principals and teachers, Mr. Autry missed associating with students. However, this was certainly a very fruitful and activity-filled year for the new superintendent of the Enid Schools: Mr. O. T. Autry.

O. T. AUTRY, APPROACHABLE, Giving His Best . . .

MR. AUTRY BEGINS his first year as superintendent in an action-packed year attending meetings with the Board of Education, administering to his four-hundred member public school teaching staff, and going to innumerable E.H.S. school events.

Mr. Webb Leads Enid High Plainsmen

IT'S OUT TO EAT for the faculty and their families. Mr. Jack Webb, his wife, Gloria, and their three sons, Kirby, Danny, and David, have dinner at Enid High cafeteria for guests of Open House. Mr. and Mrs. Mauk and Mr. and Mrs. Webb relax after the DE-DO Banquet. Mrs. Mauk (Coleen), Marcia, Sherry, Diane, and Mr. Gene Mauk enjoy the Open House meal.

With anticipation Mr. J. D. Webb began his first year as principal of Enid High School. His sense of humor and willingness to make Enid High outstanding made him popular with everyone.

He worked with guidance counselors and instructors striving to prepare students for the responsibilities the future would demand from them. In January he attended the National Association of Secondary School Principals' Meeting in Miami, Florida, where he exchanged ideas with principals from all over the United States, and in March attended the North Central Accrediting Association Meeting in Chicago. Each day he helped solve problems which arose in a school the size of Enid High. The calm manner he displayed assured the student body and faculty of his position.

Week-ends found Mr. Webb with his wife, Gloria, three small sons, David, 10 years old; Dan, 8 years old; and Kirby, age 6. Vacations found him with his family traveling and fishing. Mr. Webb also spent part of his spare time playing golf, reading, and enjoying another of his interests, woodwork.

Under Mr. Webb's leadership, Enid High functioned harmoniously and grew academically. His main interest was in helping the students attain the goals they had set. As the year drew to a close, he had the satisfaction of a job well done.

MR. WEBB, CONSCIENTIOUS, But Fun Loving . . .

Mr. Mauk Counsels, Understands

Cheerful, capable, understanding, and helpful made an appropriate characterization of Mr. Eugene Mauk, assistant principal of Enid High School. He was always busy helping students with problems and trying to promote harmony throughout the scholastic and social activities here.

This was Mr. Mauk's first year as assistant principal, although he had taught biology at Enid High for four years previous to his promotion.

Mr. Mauk was born in Enid, but he attended high school in California. After World War II, he returned to Enid to enter Phillips University where he received his B.S. degree with majors in education and biology. While teaching in Enid, he attended Oklahoma State University summer schools and Saturday classes to enable him to obtain his Master's Degree in educational administration.

Although he worked through the summer making preparations for the next fall's enrollment, he still found time to enjoy fishing, camping, and swimming at local lakes with his family.

Because of his desire to be fair, patient, and co-operative, Mr. Mauk gained the respect and admiration of all who knew him. Students and faculty appreciated having such a devoted man on the Enid High School administrative staff.

MR. MAUK, SYMPATHETIC, Friendly, Controlled . . .

These Are Responsible for E. H. S. Gloss

E.H.S.'ers were a well-fed student body. The cafeteria staff did a wonderful job planning and preparing well-balanced meals for students and faculty. No one could complain about being hungry, as the cafeteria was open before school, for the benefit of those late sleepers who didn't have time to eat breakfast before coming to school, or for the ones who just wanted a snack to tide them over till the bell rang for lunch. Then, down the shiny halls, it was off to eat again.

All students at Enid High were proud of their school. Attributing the shining halls to the efforts of ever-present, hard-working maintenance crew, students showed the building to visitors. Through the day and on into the night the maintenance crew worked to keep Enid High School in top notch condition the year round.

MRS. BOBBIE HARPER, cafeteria manager, is happy to have Fred Raikes, building engineer, help solve her mechanical problems.

Raikes, Mr. Heli Keller, Mr. Ralph Fry, Mr. Edgar Bell, Mr. Rolland Swanson.

RECEIVING SCHEDULES, comparing classes with friends, and enrolling at E.H.S. for the first time are all part of enrollment.

Students Provide the Spark

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS Barbara Cummins, secretary; Brad Johnston, president; Andi Tindle, treasurer; Karen Kesner, reporter; and Jim Wilson, vice-president, take time from their busy schedules to chat about plans for coming school events.

MR. DICK AUTRY, owner and manager of Don-Paul Cafeteria, talks informally with students concerning the advantages and disadvantages in the Hotel and Restaurant management business during the Annual Senior Career day lecture sessions.

Senior Officers Lead With Pride

Loomis, reporter; and Ann Semke, secretary, stop to talk with Johnny about his new Corvair and the next school dance.

The "Pride of E.H.S." is on again! On at football games, basketball games, concerts, and contests. The band started its work in August and wound up in May. Work included everything from intricate marching routines to soft, staccato music. Various divisions participated in concerts and contests across the state. Four individual members were selected to attend the All-State Band at Norman. This band consisted of a large group of the top band students from Oklahoma high schools.

During brisk fall days, the band was a constant sight on the practice field. From 7:30 o'clock through second hour, Mr. Griffin would drill the band for games. Football fans enjoyed these performances and showed their appreciation through enthusiastic ovations and comments after every game. During the halftime of the Putnam City game, Janet Lewis was crowned Band Queen by band president Paul Fahrenbruch. The band was also a familiar sight at the basketball games. From the colorful opening ceremonies to the inspiring half-time music, the band put its best into producing inspiration for the team to go on to victory.

On April 2, the band presented their annual "Symphony, Song, and Swing" concert before a large and appreciative audience. This was the second year they had worn their new uniforms, and they looked as excellent as their music proved to be.

As always, Enid was host to the annual Tri-State Music Festival. Nearly 11,000 students, instructors, and judges participated in the marching contests, solos, ensembles, concerts, and parade. A gigantic, vocal and instrumental concert was presented by the top participants. A carnival, set up in the downtown square, was the focal point for all the young and brave at heart. The festival came to a climax on Saturday morning with a colorful Million Dollar Parade.

Then the weary musicians from various states piled into waiting buses for the long trip home, taking with them their hard-earned awards.

As the year came to an end, graduating seniors had many treasured memories of band activities; and they, with other members of the band, had again shown the skill and determination for which the Pride of E.H.S. had become famous.

STRUTTING THROUGH THE downtown streets of Dallas, Texas the Enid Legionettes Drum and Bugle Corps participates with corps from all over the United States in national competition in which they placed fifth in marching and concert.

Legionettes Win Fifth in National

The Enid Legionettes did it again! Starting early in the summer, they began thrilling thousands of spectators as they displayed their precision marching and snappy music. Their music, made only by bugles and drums, combined in beautiful music like "I Could Have Danced All Night," "I Enjoy Being a Girl," and their concert number, a combination of "I Only Have Eyes for You," and "My Baby Just Cares for You." The first contest they attended was the Texas National Contest held at San Antonio, Texas, here they placed first in their division. From there they traveled to Kansas, playing in contests at Hutchinson and Great Bend. In July the Legionettes sponsored an invitational contest with bands coming from Colorado, Kansas, and other cities in Oklahoma. Their last contest for the summer was held at Denver, Colorado. Early in the school year the eager girls traveled to Dallas, Texas, for another contest.

This year's officers for the Legionettes were Susie Smith, president; Donna Linker, vice-president and secretary; Laura Abernathy, treasurer; and Gay Lynn Moots, publicity manager. Jo Anne Specie was librarian, and Ethel Gill and Gail Robinson worked together as chaplain and co-chaplain. Professor John Baird was the director and bugle instructor. David Hough added his services as the drum instructor. Early in the summer Walt Barnes assisted as the business manager, and when school started, Jack Swank became the corps and business manager. Sharon Oberlender exhibited her fine leadership as Drum Majorette until she became 21 this year. The 52 Legionettes also had a corps mother who went on the trips with the girls and served them as their mother away from home. This year Louise Montgomery served as the corps mother. By steady practice and hard work the Legionettes gained the signal recognition of 5th in the nation.

Band Delights With Mood Music

During the school year, students may have heard some pretty swinging music coming from the band room. It was obvious it wasn't the full band, and it was just as obvious it wasn't a small ensemble. If you were one of those puzzled students, the sound you heard was from the E.H.S. stage band. This talented group of nineteen young musicians was selected from the E.H.S. band.

The stage band performed for the student body on an assembly March 5. In addition, they played before several business clubs, including performances for the American Business Club.

Among the numbers played by the band which stood out were the "Trumpet Soliloquy," featuring Terry Robinson, the "Tenor Soliloquy," featuring Dennis Beard on the tenor sax, and the "Trombone Soliloquy," played by Jack Killough. Also, "You're My Thrill" was played, featuring Rick Foglesong on the alto sax. A very, very wild number was the "Waltz of the Prophets" which was performed by the entire stage band. Finally, "Opus and Chartreuse" featured the entire saxophone section.

Students participating in the stage band said they were members not only because of the educational value, but for the versatility offered. Some of these students planned to go on to a professional band career, and participation in the stage band was entertaining to others as well as providing them a firm building block for the future.

One hundred and twenty Enid High Mixed Chorus members, under the direction of Mrs. Maurine Morrow Priebe, added sparkle and glamour to the 1964-1965 school year. The Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club, when combined made up the Mixed Chorus. They participated in assemblies and Tri-State. All four divisions of the chorus entertained the annual Tri-State Song Festival which was held April 28, 29, and 30. The chorus members entertained the Lions and Rotary clubs. In October the Mixed Chorus traveled in buses to Oklahoma City. The purpose of this trip was to see "One Damn Thing After Another," a musical play. Perhaps one of the most outstanding features which brought the spirit of Christmas to everyone was the annual Christmas Vesper program held at Convention Hall on December 13. A few songs that were sung at the Vespers by the Mixed Chorus were: "Angel Song," and "Be Joyful, Be Merry," along with the traditional carols. The Mixed Chorus with their melodious voices went throughout the halls of E.H.S. and sang traditional carols to put the student body in the Christmas mood. Theme of this year's annual Time to Sing program on April 27, was "Meet Me at the New York World's Fair."

The Mixed Chorus members sang songs such as, "Shalom," "Now Let All Sing," and "Americans Cherish These." Represented by songs were various Fair pavilions, among them Denmark, represented by "Wonderful Copenhagen"; Catholics by "Salve Regina"; and religion by "One in God." All 120 members did a dance during "You're a Lucky Fellow Mister Smith." Jerry Cornwell and Sherry Maxwell did a dance to "South Wind." The highlight of the Chorus program was the crowning of the Chorus Queen and Herald. Queen for this year was Jane Upp and her royal escort was Dale Melott, the Chorus King. The Queen attendants and their escorts were: Ann Semke-Ray Unruh; Sherry Mauk-Greg Cross; La Vida Heinrichs-Steve Shields; and Kim Loomis-Jerry Cornwell. The Mixed Chorus, an outstanding organization of Enid High School, gave much time and talent plus effort to make this school year, 1964-1965, the best.

Choral Group Vibrates Melody

NANCY VOLLMER, Kathleen Maddox, Marilyn Munger, Jane Upp, and Ann Semke present an original lyric for the State AAA Champs.

"There's a Song in the Air" is a good way to describe the E.H.S. Girls' Chorus. Since the chorus was so large, practice days for the girls were divided into sophomore and junior-senior class periods. With the accompaniment of Barbara Baird and the direction of Mrs. Maurine Morrow Priebe, the Girls' Chorus did a tremendous job this year. To bring in the Christmas spirit at the Christmas Vespers on December 13, the Girls' Chorus sang, "The Christmas Nightingale," and "O Thou Joyful Day." Sophomore officers were: Gay Lynn Moots, president; Terry Rusik, vice president; Sherry Russell, secretary; Sharon Slope, treasurer. Chorus members also honored the graduating seniors with songs at the traditional May Fete, May 19. The biggest activity for the Girls' Chorus was the annual "Time to Sing" program, "Going to the New York World's Fair," where they sang a melodious love section. "You and I," and "Imagination," were just a few of the songs they sang on the program.

Tonal Variety Heightens Interest

The Girls' Glee Club, an outstanding vocal part of the E.H.S. chorus department, gave many performances this year before Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary civic clubs. Mrs. Maurine Morrow Priebe, director of the Girls' Glee Club, had trained her girls in such a way that they made an excellent showing for the 1964-1965 year. "One Damn Thing After Another," a musical play, was seen in Oklahoma City by both the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs.

Giving a cathedral atmosphere at the Christmas Vespers, December 13, the Girls' Glee Club sang unaccompanied "Cradle Song" and "Indulu Jubilo." Officers for the Girls' Glee Club were: Jane Upp, president; Ann Semke, vice president; and Janice Johndrow, secretary. Marilyn Munger and Connie Snowden were accompanists for the Girls' Glee Club. Besides singing at Tri-State, and the May Fete, the Girls' Glee Club did a different pavilion section in the annual "Time to Sing" program, "Going to the New York World's Fair."

Orchestra Adds Symphonic Touch

JOHN TRESNER, junior, member of both dance band and orchestra, displays his drumming talent at the band assembly.

Talent combined with hard work and practice, plus determination and fun, were characteristic of the qualities found in Enid High School's orchestra, composed of forty high school students.

Mr. Eugene Griffin, director, led the full orchestra and string orchestra through a successful and eventful year for 1964-1965.

Among the activities that filled the year was a string clinic on January 30, Quad City Orchestra Festival in Stillwater on February 18, and also a clinic with junior high schools at Enid High School. March 19 was the date of the district contest in Alva, and on March 25 a successful and entertaining concert of the high school and junior high orchestras was held in the E.H.S. auditorium. Climaxing the year, the orchestra participated in the annual Tri-State Music Festival. Members were entered in large string ensemble and solo competition. Musical talents were combined to make a successful year for all.

Boys Strive for Vocal Perfection

Deep melodious voices could be heard as one passed the chorus room which belonged to the seventy-two members of the Boys' Glee Club.

Masculine notes of the Boys' Glee Club rang out holiday spirit when the boys sang songs of yuletide at the Christmas Vespers.

Also during the year, the boys made several appearances singing at various clubs and schools. They sang with the Girls' Glee Club at the Lions Club and another time at Emerson Junior High.

To wind up the year the Boys' Glee Club made their final appearance at the spring events. The sound of music rang out when the boys joined the Girls' Chorus in the annual spring program and when they serenaded the graduating seniors at the May Fete. The Glee Club was under the direction of Mrs. Maurine Priebe. The officers of the Glee Club were: Jerry Cornwell, president; Dale Melott, secretary; Ray Unruh, treasurer. Many of the boys planned to major in fine arts in college.

Students Present 'Mouse That Roared'

The all-school play was more than just another production. It was the only time that sophomores, juniors, and seniors combined to support a play.

The acting urge stirred inside the entire student body. Who had not, at some time in his life, desired to be another for an hour or so?

Unfortunately an opportunity such as this did not often arise, but the all-school play gave students a chance to work in a play. Of course, a little talent, the will to work, co-operation, and love of acting had to be demonstrated—but such qualities were not as rare as one might think!

THE ALL-SCHOOL play cast excitedly watches as Professor Kokintz urges Tully Bascom not to explode the bomb.

QUEEN GLORIANA'S COURT, soldiers and American scientist look with amazement as two American WACS enter in excitement.

Enid High Dramatists Present Comedy

The imaginary country of Grand Fenwick set the stage for the all-school play entitled "The Mouse That Roared." Queen Glorianna (Anna Beth Luckinbill) sent Tully Bascom (Brent Wolfe) to the United States to start a war because the United States always sent aid to the countries they defeated in war. While in America, Bascom and his small army stole a bomb from Professor Kokintz (Wayne Merry) who worked for the government. The excitement that was stirred up because of the bomb made the play hilarious. The excellent cast consisted of thirty-two sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

IN AN ATTEMPT to disrupt affairs so everyone will leave her house, Agatha Forbes, the witch, casts a spell on guests at her party.

Senior Play Bewitched by Agatha

A witch in this day and age? Yes, a real, genuine, burned-at-the-stake witch came with the house the O'Haras bought. The haunted house set the stage for the senior play, "All Because of Agatha," directed by Mrs. Delyte Poindexter.

Duff O'Hara and his wife Joan decided to give a party for Agatha Forbes, the witch. On November 22, the night of the party as well as the night which Agatha had chosen to appear on for the last 250 years, the witch was greeted with a startling development: no one was afraid of her. As a result, the evening was filled with humorous antics.

A BEAUTIFULLY changed Agatha does a little maneuvering so that when they awake, the guests will be in precarious positions.

AFTER A DAY'S stay at the hospital, Marmee arrives home and asks her "Little Women" how their day has progressed without her. Clockwise are Barbara Parham (Jo), Myra Bivins (Beth), Lynn Ridge (Amy), Phyllis Haltom (Marmee), and Sandra Blackburn (Meg) from Louisa Mae Alcott's classic.

Thespians Stage 'Little Women'

One of the best-loved American stories was presented April 9 by the Thespians of Enid High School. "Little Women" came alive as Jo (Barbara Parham), Beth (Myra Bivins), Amy (Lynn Ridge), and Meg (Sandra Blackburn) planned what to buy with their money. Jo's tomboy antics enraged young Amy whose vocabulary was too precise. The little women started to grow up when Meg fell in love and married John Brooke (Brent Wolfe). Jo was against love until she met Professor Bhaer (Jim Buxton). Marmee (Phyllis Haltom) and father (Ron Williams) turned their little women into fine young ladies.

Clockwise: JO (BARBARA PARHAM), Beth (Myra Bivins), and Amy (Lynn Ridge) concentrate on Amy's drawing, as Laurie (Rusty Swanson) says, "Good morning, madame mother," handing flowers to Marmee (Phyllis Haltom), while Brooke (Brent Wolfe) and Meg (Sandra Blackburn) look on.

Thespians Engage In Contest Plays

Once again Thespians strove diligently to accomplish their goal: various phases of the dramatic arts in secondary schools. Each member participated in a play, program, or assembly. Different phases included acting, costumes, make-up, dancing, giving speeches, lighting, and stage furnishings.

A get-acquainted party was held in the fall for prospective members, and in February sixty-four new members were initiated. Spring brought the annual senior banquet given in honor of all graduating Thespians. Tables at the gala affair were decorated to carry out the themes of plays given this year. Later members attended a state Thespian convention at Edmond. High point of the session was the Thespian play, a delightful dramatization of "Little Women" by Louisa Mae Alcott.

Late Hours Bring Rewards

Accuracy and responsibility along with hours of work were duties of each member of the QUILL annual staff. Names, copy, heads, pictures, and all details were checked, corrected, and rechecked to insure accuracy of the 1965 Enid High annual.

Staff members gained confidence as they raced with time to reach their goal: a finished annual. Their reward was a memory book of high school days.

Weekly Represents Students

Members of the Quill Newspaper staff made it their goal to represent all of Enid High School, her traditions and ideals. Days and nights they dashed to the printers with copy to meet the next dreaded deadline. With each issue came the desire for the Quill to be an accurate account of school activities. Miss Ruth Scott, newswriting as well as yearbook instructor, sponsored the publication.

EVERYONE WORKS—some to meet the copy deadline by writing columns, checking copy and space; some to check on upcoming sports events; others to ready the exchange which is sent to other schools as soon as the Quill Weekly is printed.

Professionals Provide Inside View

The Journalism Club gained experience by scheduling key speakers to attend their meetings and traveling across the state to hear top people in the journalism field. Guest speakers included Mrs. Marquis James, wife of author Marquis James; Bruce Hinson, WKY editorial writer; Skip Mills, KGW newsman; Vida Chenoweth, Wycliff linguist, and Pat Murphy, KCRC director.

Through the year they journeyed to Oklahoma State University at Stillwater and the University of Oklahoma at Norman to attend press meetings. During Thanksgiving nineteen journalists and their sponsor, Ruth Scott, traveled to Chicago to attend the National Scholastic Press Association meeting.

Officers for the club were: Cheryl Edwards, president; Sharon Woodbury, vice president; Betsy Boyle, secretary; Paulette Thompson, treasurer; Shari Winter, program chairman; Mark Cromwell, refreshment chairman, and Kenny Cribley, co-refreshment chairman.

Debate Presents Current Challenge

The Debate Club of Enid High School was unusually active this year. The debaters worked endlessly preparing for contests. During the year the team went to two legislative debate contests, the first at Northwest Classen in Oklahoma City, and the next at the Central State College at Edmond. Later in the year, they went to Lawton and to Oklahoma City for the final debate of the year.

At regular debate contests, the debate teams made good showings. During the year they went to Panhandle A&M at Goodwell and Northwestern at Alva. At the close of the first semester, Mrs. Una Lee Voigt, speech instructor for the past fifteen years, took a leave of absence due to critical health. Substituting in her absence was Mr. Gary Horn from Northwestern State College at Alva, Oklahoma.

NFL Represents Talented Speakers

Membership in the National Forensic League led to opportunity and success for the open-minded high school student. Some activities included the N.F.L. student congress and the district tournament held yearly. Only National Forensic League members were allowed to attend these events, but there were several more interscholastic debates and contests which were open to any student who enjoyed taking part in speech activities.

During the year, officers were elected to guide the Enid Chapter of N.F.L. onto greater heights and more victories. Those elected included Kenneth Klingenberg, president, and Lynn Ridge, secretary. During the 1965 school term 45 members were active in N.F.L. At the beginning of the second semester Mrs. Una Voigt took a leave of absence due to illness, and Mr. Gary Horn took over, setting his sights high for serving E.H.S.

Enrollment and Career Day Presents Challenges

Students chart a year's fate each annual enrollment day when marking a preferred choice of classes. Assisting students in making decisions, the Guidance Department and enrollment advisers devote themselves to helping each student choose and adjust to his curriculum. Each student goes to an assigned room to fill out several cards which are kept in the general office for reference and to find out their pre-planned schedules for the coming year.

WITH A BRIGHT, cheery smile, Kenneth Cribley, senior, who is assisted by Mrs. Sadie Meese, enrolling adviser, discovers who his new teachers will be for the year.

Bustle of Activity Begins Year

STUDENTS ESCORT parents to Open House dinner.

The race of student activity at Enid High School started with a resonating shot of excitement at the first outdoor pep assembly when Plainsmen spirit reached a threshold of pride. Later in the year, with no loss of zeal, assemblies were conducted inside, oftentimes with a tinge of optimistic drama relative to the forthcoming game. The Aquaettes performed at Open House, giving parents an exhibition of talent while touring the building. Each department of the school gave displays of students' work and went all-out to acquaint parents with the school and its activities.

Competition Makes Enid a Threat

Enid High School student life was one of participation and competition—competition among fellow students as well as students of other schools. Students reminiscing on the past year can acknowledge with pride the accomplishments of Plainsmen against rival schools. The honors attained by members of the student body have made our school a school of firsts. Our cheerleaders, upon returning from a state clinic, proudly displayed the blue tokens of accomplishment. Cross country contestants received a first in the state, keeping in stride with the football team, who took tops in regionals and state. The Elks Award, given annually to one outstanding E.H.S. Senior boy and girl on the basis of leadership and scholarship was awarded to Brad Johnston and Sarah Clarke.

Future Doors Open To New Experiences

Upon closing the doors of high school activity, new ones were curiously opened and observed. Career Day gave seniors a look into the future as to potential vocations. Girls were fascinated by the airline hostess from Central Airlines who sketched the exciting possibilities of travel. People from all professions talked to students, answering any relevant questions. Students charted a year's fate each annual enrollment day when marking a preferred choice of classes. Upon returning to school the following Monday, students gathered in the halls to compare schedules.

Assemblies Create Enjoyment

THE ASSEMBLIES of the past year have been of outstanding quality, characteristic of all Plainsmen activities. The pep assemblies of E.H.S. were largely responsible for the backbone of spirit employed at all games. Perhaps a little culture was transmitted to the student body by the band, orchestra and Aquaette assemblies. Programs of a more serious nature were presented for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, featuring guest speakers from several Enid churches. A safety program was given by a former Indianapolis 500 race track driver.

FOR THE FINALE of the annual Christmas assembly, all who participated gather to wish everyone a Merry Christmas.

Girls Set Out to Catch "That Man"

Whish! Catch that man! These were the sounds of the unleashing of the weaker sex upon the Knights of Bachelorhood, or better known as the male section of the student body, on the start of Sadie Hawkins Week. The last in each grade to renounce their single standing for spousehood were elected and crowned as "Li'l Abner's" on the fateful assembly. Each night from Monday to Saturday, special entertainment was planned—church basketball, the home-cooked meal, the play. At the dance on Friday night upon the realization of certain fate, the reluctant partners relaxed to enjoy the floor show.

Plainsmen Display Varied Interests

Plainsmen interest, involving all students and all activities, gave an avenue of success to each person. From these interests students were able to build a name for both the school and themselves. To encourage young scientists, E.H.S. was the first high school to have an observatory. The astronomy club was formed to forward students with this interest. Others found expression through dancing, drama, or music. The Bravettes, a girls' Plainsmen interest club, forwarded their goal by working after school to decorate the building from roof to foundation for the game the coming day.

ENID HIGH school students take a great interest in a new addition to the school curriculum, the science observatory, which enables students to view the distant heavens.

Service. Scholarship. Leadership. Character. These were the four areas in which members of the National Honor Society were required to excel, in addition to rating above average on the personality rating sheets. Projects and activities in all four kept those in the National Honor Society busy. The library "College Corner" proved to be of special interest to college-bound seniors. Journeying to Muskogee, the Enid N.H.S. was elected State Vice-President. At Garber, N.H.S. delegates held a tapping ceremony for the Garber National Honor Society at its first meeting.

The appliance, influence, and congeniality of mental cultivation acquired, combined to make National Honor Society members outstanding.

Student Council Sets Governing Pace

Core of the E.H.S. student body was the hard-working and systematic-thinking Student Council. Included in their varied activities was selling key chains, operating a Christmas post office, establishing a student bulletin board, having a student section at football games, and collecting food by homerooms for the Salvation Army baskets.

One couldn't say enough for the loyal sponsor, Mr. Stanley Jenkins, for without his valiant effort, Student Council officers would not have been able to carry out their most important function: student governing. Although E.H.S. Student Council kept busy, they enjoyed themselves, at the party for new students, Christmas party, and picnic.

Delta Theta Explores Future In Math

MISS ADAMS explains a trig problem to Dennis Felix, Marty Shupack, Ken Klingenberg, Myra Bivins, Sarah Clarke, and Ann Rush during a Delta Theta session.

Delta Theta, sponsored by Miss Mary Evelyn Adams, was composed of seniors enrolled in trig, analytical geometry-calculus, or math analysis.

Meetings were held the morning of the second and afternoon of the fourth Wednesday.

Prominent teachers and professional men met with members to broaden their knowledge in mathematical fields. Among those appearing were George E. Day, Jr., architect, who discussed uses of math in determining construction methods; Robert Morris, Phillips professor, who told what to expect in college math courses; and Prof. John Gains, who gave instructions in the operation of the slide rule. Through these speakers an insight was gained into opportunities and challenges awaiting those interested in mathematics.

Radio, TV Provides Individual Facets

The Radio and TV Club had a busy year, with contests and programs. For the entire year students prepared for contests which consisted of commentaries written by students, news prepared a short time before they were to be judged, and cold copy commercials to be read on first sight. On those three items each student was judged.

Also during the year the Radio and TV Club was invited to do programs at various clubs, among which was the Rotary Club and the Lioness Club.

In addition, students showed their ability Saturdays and Wednesdays on KCRC radio station. Saturdays they helped disc-jockeys and on Wednesday they prepared school news. In February KGWA turned their radio station over for Radio Day.

The skills learned would benefit the community as well as the school. The work was hard, but the rewards financed the extra effort. Mrs. Una Lee Voigt and Mr. Gary Horn served as sponsors.

PERFORMING IN the Little Theater, Randy LeGrant, Romeo; Sam Johnson, Juliet, give a cutting of Shakespeare's play.

Student Accounts Make Busy Day

A place familiar to every student of Enid High was the Activity Office. Responsibility for keeping accurate records of all organizations' accounts was assumed there by Mr. Charles Lynch, Mrs. Edna Newman, secretarial assistant, and students who worked during study hall hours. Staff members also faced the responsibility of recording the payments and distribution of Activity tickets and QUILL Annuals. School supplies and reserve tickets were also sold at the Activity Office, which definitely played an important part in keeping Enid High moving in a solvent manner.

Palette Club Brings Out Creativity

JANICE BROWN, senior at easel, captures likeness of Paula Chapman while Harvey Burdg sketches a man's features.

Formed to further increase the student's interest in art, the Palette Club met once a month in the high school art room to hear speakers in the various fields of art, see films, or take part in a work night. One such work night held just before the Christmas vacation, was dedicated by each student to making original Christmas cards.

Two guest speakers heard this year were Mr. David Tarpenning, who spoke on commercial art, and Mrs. W. O. Fitzpatrick, who talked about Alaska and showed a few of her paintings. Locally they visited the fascinating art exhibit belonging to Professor John Randolph of Phillips University.

Members toured the art school at Norman, the art museum at the Oklahoma City fair grounds, and the city's planetarium. Sponsors were Miss Katherine Bales and Mr. Eldon Ames, instructors at E.H.S.

Library Means Browsing, Research

The library had always been one of the most important places in Enid High. There students went for a good book, a quiet place to study or just to relax and read a magazine. Whatever the reason, students took advantage of the quiet atmosphere before or after school, or during a study period to work on a library unit for English.

It was unlikely that one would be able to find a better equipped library. Books for all interests included fiction, travel, biographies, autobiographies, sports, and reference books. Library assistants were always available to help find anything from the latest book of poetry to source material for library units. Keeping all books in good condition was also the responsibility of the library staff. They took care of binding all damaged books and made repairs on them. This was Mrs. Rosamay Lynch's first year as head librarian, and it was her job to oversee and manage the library and the E.H.S. staff.

Office Assistants Get Work Out

Picking up attendance slips, taking call slips, showing new students their classes, and running errands for teachers and office staff, all this in one period. The office assistants of Enid High had a busy hour every day doing all of these. Each hour there were three or four students to help Mrs. Florence Scott, Mrs. Dorothy Hess, and

Mrs. Olla Huston. To be an assistant one had to maintain a good average and not be a disciplinary problem to the school. Students working in the office had a friendly smile for every teacher and for all who came into it. From working in the office a student received a satisfaction of work well done and a reward of helping others.

FTA Learns Teaching Ideals, Services

CYNDI CRUTHIRDS, Gayle Cole and Sherry Mauk play Santa Claus helper at their party for underprivileged children.

This year members of Future Teachers explored the teaching profession, its opportunities, responsibilities, and its important role in a democracy. Miss Evelyn Sanders and Mrs. Roberta Smith, sponsors, aided the members in determining their own special interest and abilities in education.

In their monthly meetings which were held every fourth Tuesday, they discussed, among other things, the European school system, and techniques of teaching students at different grade levels.

F.T.A. members served at E.E.A. dinners, sold concessions at football games, gave a Christmas party for needy children, sent delegates to Bethany and to the state convention at Stillwater. Their main project was "Teacher Appreciation Week" held February 8-12, in recognition of Enid High School's dedicated teachers and administrators.

Medical Arts Shows Service Angle

As they have for years, the Medical Arts Club tackled many unique fields of study in a large variety of medical courses. Volunteer work at the Enid State School was their project. The E.H.S. students taught boys and girls at the school to play new games and gave an annual Christmas party. They also undertook painting a merry-go-round for children at the State School. Members worked in nursing homes, running errands, reading to patients, and visiting with them. In addition, St. Mary's Hospital had many volunteer workers from the group. Several trips were taken during the year to Oklahoma City and other places of medical interest. Members also worked on individual projects in specialized fields according to interest. Through guest speakers the Medical Arts Club made definite progress during the 1965 school year.

DO Teaches Trade Skills

Larry Sharp, the 1965 Diversified Occupations president, led the club through another year of worthwhile fun. Mr. Tom Kennedy sponsored.

Three main topics covered in this year's D.O. educational program were: Consumers' economical problem, health and safety, and human relations.

Various trades included in the program were jobs in: radio and TV repair, machine operators, and nurses' aid. Mr. Kennedy visited the 49 students once a week to observe them. The total earnings of students for nine months was $35,000.

The big annual event was the Employee-Employer banquet held in November. In April the D.O. Club went to Okmulgee State Tech for Career Day.

DE Stresses Salesmanship

Distributive Education, commonly called D.E., was part of the Vocational Training program provided for students by the Enid City Public Schools. D.E. was designed to prepare students to become self-supporting, efficient members of their own communities by providing instruction preparatory to entering Diversified Occupations. D.E. was a partnership in which the schools, businesses, and students joined supervised on-the-job training in actual working conditions, with regular working wages. The Distributive Education students attended regular school in the mornings, where they received credits for solid subjects in order to graduate. Mr. Jerry Simmons headed the E.H.S. chapter of D.E.

Girls Gain Invaluable Experience

Much could be learned in Homecraft which would be useful throughout one's life, such as learning to carry out a budget on a limited income. Under the instructions of Mrs. Virginia Unruh and Mrs. Donna Henneke, each girl planned a wedding and then planned and furnished a home, estimating all costs. Discussing topics ranging from behavior on a date to child care, the girls learned how to understand themselves, co-operate with others, and how to cope with life's problems.

Students Learn Governing Methods

Five girls and thirteen boys represented Enid High at Girls' State and Boys' State Convention, sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary and American Legion, respectively. Each student filled out an application stating his achievements in citizenship, scholarship, and leadership, as well as extra-curricular activities. Both Boys' and Girls' State dealt with the functioning of government. David Johnson was selected to attend Boys' Nation.

Hi-Y Has Comprehensive Program

Hi-Y, a branch of the Y.M.C.A., consisting of a youth and government program, offered boys new-found values simply because of the purpose of the organization: to give members a comprehensive knowledge of the community in which they lived.

This year, they attended a variety of conventions where they debated and learned about the operation of the legislative branch of the state government, and also submitted their own bills.

G. R. A. Stresses Fitness

The Girls' Recreation Association provided opportunities for members to display and build sports abilities. This group, sponsored by Mrs. Phyllis Henrichs, met weekly for activity, giving each girl a chance to develop her ability of getting along with others and to make new acquaintances. Participating in volleyball, badminton, table tennis, and bowling, each girl contributed, but those with more skill formed teams to play against each other. Each girl accumulated extra points outside of regular activity days to stay active in the group. Climax of the year occurred when the GRA attended the Individual Sports Day held in the spring at the University of Oklahoma.

GRA PLAYS an exciting game of volleyball in the girls' gym during Open House to display the importance of sportsmanship.

Printing Assures Boys A Trade

The Printing Club, composed of Advanced and Trade printing students, provided opportunity to perfect their skill in the professional trade. Members printed the Quill Weekly, want ads, and senior name cards, they also printed report cards, admits, and forms for elementary schools, junior highs, and E.H.S. Sponsored by Mr. Herbert A. Seem, the boys learned a beneficial profession.

Aquaettes Work for Precision

There's a lot more to being an Aquaette than meets the eye—or the water! Starting in September of each year with a week-long clinic, candidates were instructed by Aquaette members in the nine basic strokes, the pencil dive, ballet legs, and various stunts. These skills were demonstrated at the end of the clinic before a group of swimming instructors who gave the ratings which determined the list of new Aquaette members.

Work began immediately on a preview water show given at Open House. All music was selected by the Aquaettes themselves, and they did all their own "poolography." Numbers required extensive work and rehearsal on land before they were ever tried in the water. Throughout all this, Mrs. Judy Hickie, sponsor, took sole responsibility for attending every session to advise and give moral support. She was the only indispensable member of the group—the Aquaettes were a team—all pulling together.

The climax of the year was the spring water show held in March. This year's show portrayed a masked ball, and the numbers and decorations carrying out this theme were exceptionally colorful and gay. During this show Miss Nancy Cummins was crowned Queen by Brad Johnston.

Bible Emphasizes Rules for Living

The study of the creation of the world, the beginning of sin, and the preparation for salvation as found in the Old Testament was the main objective of each Bible Class during the first semester. The second semester course included the life of Christ and the plan for saving the world. This enabled each student to gain a better understanding of the Christian religion and other religions of the world and also to obtain a greater appreciation of the world around him.

Under the direction of Mr. Stanley Jenkins, each Bible Class organized itself into a club. They elected officers whose duty it was to obtain guest speakers and acquire films to be shown at the monthly meetings which were held in class. These special programs were presented both for the benefit of the students and for their enjoyment.

"Plainsmen Did It Again" was the cry heard through the state when the Enid High School plowboys won the State AAA Football Championship.

The Plainsmen, who were not even rated at the beginning of the season, overcame a first heart-breaking loss to Ponca City and kept climbing until they captured Mid-State then State.

With the spirit they displayed, it was inevitable that they should receive glory. Richard Escoe, Mike Arnold, and Allan Riley made the All-State team. All-Conference members were Ronnie Ackerman, Mike Arnold, Richard Escoe, David Gurwell, David Karns, Larry McKee, Allan Riley, and Bob Zahl. Escoe was honored by being named to the All-American team, one of two Oklahoma boys who received this title. Coach Harvey Griffin was named "Coach of the Year" and soon announced that he had accepted a position on the coaching staff of Texas Western in El Paso, Texas. Rex Martin, named to succeed Griffin, accepted an offer to go into business locally. Alvin C. Duke, football coach from Pawhuska, was named coach for 1965-66.

The Plainsmen traveled to Ponca City for the season opener. The Wildcats were out for revenge and got it. Both teams fought a hard game, but the Plainsmen were inconsistent in their efforts.

Spirit Soars High

Enid's first Mid-State conference game was played against Putnam City. Scoring Enid's three touchdowns, Richard Escoe led the Plainsmen to a 21-14 victory over the Pirates. He picked up 189 yards of rushing in 18 carries and caught a two-point conversion pass. Putnam City came back and within seven minutes scored their 14 points.

The next week the Plainsmen journeyed to Shawnee. Enid won its second conference tilt by stunning the Wolves in a 42-8 victory. Enid's Big Blue worked as a unit, and all 36 boys who made the trip saw action. Enid rolled up 367 yards rushing to 186 for the Wolves and had 73 yards passing to 45 for Shawnee. Three different defensive units had a part in the victory.

Enid's next opponent was OC Douglass. The Plainsmen fooled those who had predicted this would be a close game and romped Douglass 51-22. The combined efforts of Richard Escoe and Mike Arnold and some good blocks put Enid way out in front. This gave the Plainsmen a 3-0 record in Mid-State Conference and 2-0 in District 1AAA.

Enid Thrills Fans

The Plainsmen then traveled to Midwest City to play the Bombers. The team made their finest defensive showing of the season, tying Midwest 13-13. Bob Zahl returned a Bomber punt and Richard Nelson charged six yards to the 43. Richard Escoe tore away from two tacklers and ran for the first touchdown. Richard Nelson took a handoff from Mike Arnold and scored the next touchdown. Midwest City turned around and scored twice, but Enid was unable to score again.

Victory continued to be their battle cry. When the Generals from U. S. Grant played Big Blue in Plainsmen Stadium, they felt the strength of a ball club that wouldn't give up. David Karns scored two touchdowns in the first half of the game. Bob Zahl gained 102 yards rushing in 11 tries for 12 points, and Escoe had 165 in 15 carries for 6 points. Reserves played the last part of the game, and Steve Hamil scored the last TD.

In their final home game, Enid hosted long-time rivals, Northwest Classen. It was Dads' Night, and the Plainsmen pleased fans by capturing the Knights 19-0. Tackles made by John Robison, Allan Riley, Ron Ackerman, and Dick Bland boosted Enid's defense. The Plainsmen allowed the Knights only 19 yards on the ground in the last half. Escoe scored first two TD's; Karns the last.

Gridders Win Tilt

Enid traveled to John Marshall to vie for the championship of the northern half of District 1AAA. Despite a rain-soaked Taft Stadium, the Plainsmen captured the title with a 34-7 victory. Enid drove 74 yards in 42 seconds to gain a 14-7 half-time lead. In the third quarter Zahl caught an 8-yard pass from Arnold, and David Gurwell recovered a fumble to score in the third period. Richard Scaling ran 9 yards for final touchdown.

A victory over the Capitol Hill Redskins put Enid and Midwest City into the Mid-State limelight. David Karns caught a pass from Arnold for the first touchdown. The next two were scored by Richard Nelson. Arnold hit Larry McKee for two

The next week Enid hosted Midwest City for the District 1AAA championship. After Midwest scored the first touchdown, Bob Zahl returned a Bomber punt 28 yards for a touchdown. Enid's Big Blue drove 50 yards in eight plays to paydirt with Arnold hitting Karns with an 8-yard touchdown pass. Arnold passed to Zahl for the two-point conversion; the score stood 8-7. Dick Bland recovered a fumble at the Bomber 27. Seven plays later Escoe scored with the aid of blocks by Gurwell, Fulton, and McKee. Steve Hamil kicked for the extra point. Escoe scored the next two on 79-yard and 39-yard runs. The Plainsmen were District 1AAA Champs!

Enid played Norman in Owen Stadium for the state AAA semi-finals. Jim Wilson opened Enid's scoring with a 34-yard touchdown. A block by Gurwell aided Bob Zahl into the end zone to paydirt. Arnold shot a pass to Karns; Wilson went on to score for Enid. He sped 104 yards in 4 carries to almost double his total season yardage. The score stood 21-14. Norman scored, but failed the two-point conversion which would have given them the game. Enid used a new sprint-out pattern in the game which helped them defensively. There was no stopping them now; they were in state finals.

Dads View Victory

Enid won the State AAA Championship for the first time in history when they beat Tulsa Will Rogers' Ropers at Lewis Stadium in Stillwater in a spectacular offensive battle. First touchdown came in the second period when quarterback Mike Arnold hit halfback Jimmie Wilson in the end zone.

Second touchdown came when Arnold hit Larry McKee on a 13-yard pass after Enid hammered 77 yards in 11 plays. Steve Hamil kicked the extra point to make it 14-0 with 1:29 left in the half.

At the half, Enid fans thought it would be a runaway game, but the Tulsa Ropers did not give up that easily. A total of five TD's were scored in the third quarter, three by Tulsa, two by Enid.

Tulsa scored in eight plays after kick-off. Terry Hampton intercepted a pass, then Big Blue hit paydirt again. Arnold scored the next after Wilson fell at the one-yard line. Ropers came back to make it 21-20. Bruce Newton carried the ball 24 yards. Then Escoe, brilliant Enid fullback, broke around the Tulsa corner and rambled 87 yards for final TD. Plainsmen did it again!

Plainsmen Show Tremendous Stamina

The Enid High School basketball team, under the direction of Coach Dusty Eby, had an exciting as well as a well-played season. As in any other sport, there were many problems to overcome, one of these was the breaking in of the new members of the 1965 Plainsmen squad. These problems were met and defeated in true Enid High tradition. The boys developed their team coordination and displayed skill before fans in Enid's Convention Hall and in many games they played out of town.

Basketballers Win Honors

The team was not made up strictly of seniors; there were three juniors and two sophomores who showed favorable promise for success in future basketball careers. Seniors who turned in outstanding performances for the basketball season were Merl Barns, Jerry Cornwell, Gene Hawk, Buddy Plummer, Kenneth Schwind, Marty Sunderland, and Vernon Swiggett. Juniors on the team were Gary Boyle, Gary Moore, and Bobby Newsom. Dale Holt and Mike Wright represented the sophomore class.

Enid compiled an 18-7 record winning the regional tournament and losing to the state champions, OC Northwest Classen, 60-56, in the state basketball meet. The spark that led them to the regional and state tournaments thrilled Enid fans.

Martin Sunderland, senior guard, was named to the State AA All-Tournament squad for 1965. Gene Hawk, Plainsmen senior guard, received an honorable position on the Mid-State Conference basketball squad. The eight coaches in the league picked the all-stars for the Daily Oklahoman. Hawk and Martin Sunderland completed their third year on the Plainsman squad as lettermen, and they worked very hard for the honors they earned this year. Hawk had an average of 17.6 points per game for the fourteen league game-season this year. Hawk was also named to the 22nd annual All-State High School Basketball North Squad chosen by the Daily Oklahoman. Hawk and Sunderland, both three-year members of the Lettermen Club, displayed their skills on the court and helped build enthusiasm among their fellow squad members.

MARTIN SUNDERLAND, senior Plainsmen squad member, jumps with power to add another two points to the score board.

Baseballers Swing into New Season

DUSTY EBY demonstrates batting to Plainsmen baseballers Jerry Cornwell, Martin Sunderland, Buddy Plummer, and Gene Hawk.

Enid High baseball team began its 1965 season on March 27 by defeating Alva 2-0 and 10-8 in a twinbill. The scheduled opener against Midwest City was postponed due to cold temperatures.

Coach Dusty Eby had approximately 35 boys working out. Of those 15 boys each were carried on the Plainsmen and Highlander baseball teams.

Positions held were Doug Karns, Vernon Swiggett, catcher; Marty Sunderland, first base; Mike Longley, second base; Gene Hawk, shortstop; Buddy Plummer, third base; Ronnie Cantrell, Terry Meyer or Jerry Cornwell, outfield. Pitchers were Meyer, Cornwell, Sunderland, and Hawk who gained experience playing for Enid the year before.

Other team members were Scott Van Krevelen, David Karns, Bob Pate, Kenny Cole, Cecil Johnson, Dennis Wilson, Dale Holt, Mike Wright, Gary Moore, Rod Cook, and Jim Benson who held various positions.

Last year Enid finished 21-8 and tied Northwest Classen for the Mid-State Conference title.

Coach Eby was chosen to coach the All-Star baseball team at the All-State game held in the summer. It was his third year as baseball coach. Mac Plummer coached Highlander baseballers.

Trackmen Stride for Success in '65

Because of the resignation of Coach Harvey Griffin, Coach Frank Shive took the task of spurring these hard-working athletes on to a once again successful season, typical of E.H.S. teams.

The 1965 track team had a good season. Their chief advantage was in their experience. Returning lettermen included Pat Conway, high jump; Jimmy Curtis, pole vault; Richard Escoe, broad jump, 220; Wayne Fulton, shotput; John Handley, 880; Kenny Harrison, 440, relay man; Dennis Mitchell, hurdles, relay man; Ricky Moon, pole vault; Mike Myers, discus; Richard Nelson, 100, relay man; Johnny Robison, 100, 220, relay man; and Jimmie Wilson, broad-jump, low hurdles, relay.

Those helping the cinder team in all phases were Lowell Baker, Duane Ging, and Don Jones, the mile; David Dawes, 440; Paul Dunbar and Larry Kiefer, 880; Roy Laster, relay man; Bruce Newton, 100, 220, relay man; and Bobby Zahl, high jump.

This Plainsmen squad of speedsters traveled to many meets, mostly invitationals. These included the Lawton Invitational, the Midwest City Invitational, the Enid Invitational, the Northwestern Invitational, the Oklahoma City Invitational, the Edmond Invitational, two Ponca City dual meets, the Mid-State Conference track meet, the Regional track meet, and the Meet of Champions.

Seniors on this year's squad were Lowell Baker, Pat Conway, Richard Escoe, Wayne Fulton, Duane Ging, John Handley, Roy Laster, Dennis Mitchell, Richard Nelson, Johnny Robison, Jimmie Wilson, and Bobby Zahl.

SHOT PUT, pole vault, and long distance running are strong building factors in binding the 1965 Enid High track team.

Swimmers Display Intricate Skills

JUNIOR Steve Autry exhibits swimming techniques as he performs the butterfly stroke which has won him many firsts.

Coach Frank Shive's Mermen were a good example of swimming power this year. Practices that lasted until 5:30 and trips on the way home from a big victory were both a part of the swimming team. The team, made up of 21 boys, practiced long and hard to be able to withstand the resistance of splashing waves and stinging racing dives. On days they couldn't use the swimming pool, the boys would go outside and run to develop their legs and wind in preparation for the many meets.

At Mid-State Meet, they demonstrated their great ability to hold their own when the going got rough. They placed third out of a group of six teams who were extremely rough competitors.

Manager David Gurwell had his hands full all the time with running errands back and forth from the equipment rooms and giving the swimmers rubdowns before their events. The Mermen proved their ability to win, and the student-body showed appreciation by giving full support.

Tennis Means Fast Action

Tennis, a fast-moving sport, meant a lot of work for the Enid High tennis team. Coach Tom Niles drilled the boys long, hard hours throughout the spring to turn them into an impressive group.

Jamming the tennis courts during practice sessions, the loyal Plainsmen racketeers sharpened their skills. Keen eyes and exceptionally fast reactions were great assets during the stiff competition encountered throughout the season. The only returning member of last year's team was Gary Boyle, who this year served as captain.

Enid Hosts Golf Tourney

Enid High's golf team had a successful season. Coached by Floyd Winfield, they had matches with Alva, Putnam City, Stillwater, Ponca City, Midwest City, N.W. Classen, Capitol Hill, and U. S. Grant. They also participated in the Mid-State Conference golf tourney, April 26 in Enid.

Through all kinds of weather they practiced everyday at Meadowlake and Oakwood Country Club.

Returning lettermen adding experience were Gary Lewis, Jimmy Hayes, Joe Nevins, Cody Waddell, Craig Collins, Rod Billings, and Bobby Scott.

MEMBERS OF the Enid tennis team practice coordination on the high school courts in an effort to develop skills before playing in one of their scheduled matches.

Lettermen's Club Boosts EHS Sports

Enid High Lettermen's Club was composed of all boys lettering in various sports.

Upon earning a jacket and an "E" in football, basketball, or earning a sweater and "E" in another sport, a letterman was initiated, following a week of wearing white dress shirts, ties, and having every letterman member sign a white "E." For the lettermen who were in for more than one year, bars and medals were awarded. In order to have all boys eligible join, one initiation was held each semester. During the Sadie Hawkins Week basketball game at half time, boys to be initiated entertained the spectator-packed Convention Hall with peanut races and by leading the Bravettes and the cheerleaders in one of Enid High's cheers.

LETTERMEN PROVE their loyal Plainsmen spirit to another sport as they in white shirts and black ties follow cheerleaders in yells.

BUDDY CARROLL and Larry Scott are clothes conscious, as graduation approaches. Shari Winter, Lish Cromwell, Snookie Bauman, and John Ferguson, Patsy Buchanan, Sidney Hicks enjoy a drink. Karen Fore and Allan Riley shop for record albums.

BEST WISHES

To The 1965 Class

The Enid Business College is Oklahoma's oldest (71st year) and largest business school, with over 20,000 graduates. Many EHS graduates attend the Enid Business College every year and go out to successful, profitable business careers.

Our courses are nationally approved in the secretarial, accounting, and clerical fields. Teachers take a personal interest in every student and his success. The college maintains fine machines and equipment for students to work with. When a student finishes a course at EBC, the college helps him find a desirable position.

If you are interested in a business career for yourself, we invite you to visit the Enid Business College, to see the school and to talk over your plans.

My Father Gene McConkay in 1910 made the first pictures for the Quill Annual, through the years we have made three generations of graduates from Enid High School.

The name Photo By McConkay has stood out in the halls of Enid High through 47 years of fine Photography.

We endeavor to handle each customer as a separate and distinct "Study" not simply as a person who wants a picture, that's the reason why "McConkay pictures are Different".

I want to express my sincere Thanks to Mr. Webb and his office staff, Ruth Scott, Faculty and members of school body, for time and patience putting up with me.

Autographs

To the best science teacher I ever had - thanks for the help you have given me.

Autographs

Mr. Rickett,
I have greatly enjoyed being in your Biology class
this year.

Mr. Duckett

I have enjoyed having you for a Biology Teacher.

Good Luck.

Lawrence Ruppenthal

Mr. Duckett.
You're a wonderful teacher who I will never forget.
Love ya!
Bernard

P.S.
You're
